Order No 1338-47 V. P. 9-27-1

Dated, ~~Bangalore~~, 18-7-27

1. Under Rule 22 of the rules read above ~~the~~ Village Panchayets have power to dispense with formal estimates in respect of petty works costing less than Rs.20 and ~~they may~~, by resolution duly recorded, dispense with the preparation and sanction of formal estimates in the case of urgent works or repairs costing not more than Rs:100. In such cases a resolution of the Panchayet after completion of the work or repair that it has been satisfactorily executed and is -- worth not less than the amount charged is accepted in audit without any formal --- estimate. Under Rule 30 of the same rules Panchayets have power to sanction original public works or repairs up to Rs.100/- and ~~the~~ Amildars have power to sanction works or repairs up to Rs.500.

2. In connection with wells and other works of public utility executed by Village Panchayets, it has been suggested that -- formal detailed estimates need not be -- insisted on and that in case of works whose estimated cost does not exceed Rs.500, -- measurement of such works on completion might be taken under the supervision of the Amildar and grants-in-aid given on the value of the works thus ascertained.

3. After a careful consideration of the suggestion Government think it sufficient if the limit of power of the Panchayets (a) to dispense with formal estimates is extended to all original works and repairs costing not more than Rs.200 and (b) that to sanction estimates is raised from Rs.100 to Rs.200.

4. Necessary action will be taken to amend the rules.

5. Govt. are also pleased to direct that grants-in-aid to Panchayets ~~under G.O. No. L 4720-38/L.B.32-26-24 dated 30th Jany. 1927 may be~~ for such works may be disbursed/ paid if the Amildar is satisfied that the amount to be paid for a work including the grant-in-aid already paid therefor ~~the value of the work executed for which it is due is not less than~~ does not exceed the proportionate amount due under G.O. Rules under the Mysore Village Panchayet Regulation issued under Notification No. L. 4346—L. B. 26-26-127, dated 6th January 1927.

ORDER No. L. 338-47—V. P. 9-27-1, DATED 18TH JULY 1927.

1. Under Rule 22 of the rules read above, Village Panchayets have power to dispense with formal estimates in respect of petty works costing less than Rs. 20 and by resolution duly recorded they may dispense with the preparation and sanction of formal estimates in the case of urgent works or repairs costing not more than Rs. 100. In such cases a resolution of the Panchayet after completion of the work or repair that it has been satisfactorily executed and is worth not less than the amount charged is accepted in audit without any formal estimate. Under Rule 30 of the same rules Panchayets have power to sanction original public works or repairs up to Rs. 100 and Amildars have power to sanction works or repairs up to Rs. 500.

2. In connection with wells and other works of public utility executed by Village Panchayets, it has been suggested that formal detailed estimates need not be insisted on and that in case of works whose estimated cost does not exceed Rs. 500 measurement of such works on completion might be taken under the supervision of the Amildar and grants-in-aid given on the value of the works thus ascertained.

3. After a careful consideration of the suggestion Government think it sufficient if the limit of power of the Panchayets (a) to dispense with formal estimates is extended to all original works and repairs costing not more than Rs. 200 and (b) that to sanction estimates is raised from Rs. 100 to Rs. 200.

4. Necessary action will be taken to amend the rules.

5. Government are also pleased to direct that grants-in-aid to Panchayets may be disbursed for such works if the Amildar is satisfied that the amount to be paid for a work including the grant-in-aid already paid therefor does not exceed the proportionate amount due under Government Order No. L. 4720-38—L.
